During the workshop we learned about Io.
She is a water nymph who lives in Greece.

Draw a picture of her and a place where you think water nymphs might like to live

We also learned that Jupiter is the king of all the gods. Draw a picture of him in his castel among the clouds on Mount Olympus

At the French court, where the composer Rameau performed some of his operas, the men and women wore clothes made of the finest yellow, green, pink, and blue fabrics.

These courtiers have just received the latest trends. Color them in a colorful fashion!

At United Palace we helped Julia to choreograph a dance that expressed different emotions, like "happiness" and "sadness".

Can you choreograph a dance that expresses the emotion "anger"?
Show your dance to a grown-up or a friend!

How did it make you feel to perform your angry dance?

Draw a picture of what it might look like when you perform your angry dance on stage.
What kind of costume would you like to wear?

There are many ways of expressing emotions through art! Can a painting express an emotion? Sure it can!

Draw a picture of what jealousy looks like to you -- or pick another emotion that you like. Don't forget to color it!

The opera singer Erinn taught us to sing in French on the United Palace stage.

Ask an adult if they have help you scan this QR-code with their cellphone.

See if you can remember the French lyrics and sing along with the music! If not, perhaps you can remember the English text of "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star."

The king of France was named Louis XV and really liked to listen to opera!

Did you like listening to opera?

What color on his cloak might the king fancy wearing today?

Making masks was really fun!
Let's make another one!

There are many kinds of masks.
What kind of mask would you like to make this time?

Did you know you can make an animal mask out of a paper plate?

What kind of animal would you like to be?
Try making a paper plate mask!

Would you like to hear more Baroque opera?
Ask an adult if they have help you scan this QR-codes with their cellphone or type the links into a web browser.

Do you recognize one of the dancers in the photos?

Wow, this video has a lot of dancing!
There is baroque dance, contemporary and indian dance.
What element do you think the dancers in blue might represent?

That was a lot of fun!
See you next time!
